

Printed on March 14, 2007

April 1830	October 1832	1834-1835	October 9, 1835	December 1835	March 6, 1836	April 21, 1836
June 1832	April 1833	October 1835	October 1835	March 1836	March 27, 1836

Date Details

April 1830 :

The Mexican government forbids further American emigration to Texas.

June 1832 The Battle of Velasco:

The first casualties of war between Mexico and Texas.

October 1832 The Convention of 1832:

Texas asks for reforms in government policy towards Texas, which were rejected by the Mexican government.

April 1833 The Convention of 1833:

Texas drafts a constitution patterned after the US Constitution. Mexico again rejects Texas' attempts for independence.

1834-1835 Stephen F. Austin is Arrested:

For advising the Texans to organize their own government, Austin was arrested taken back to Mexico, and detained from early 1834 until the summer of 1835

October 1835 War Begins:

October 2 - The War of Texas Independence begins with the Battle of Gonzales.

October 1835 Battle of Concepcion:

October 28, the Texans are victorious at the Battle of Concepcion despite being outnumbered 5 to 1. The Mexicans had 76 men killed or wounded, Texas had one casualty.

December 1835 San Antonio changes hands:

December 11, the Siege of Bexar ends with the Texans capturing San Antonio.

March 1836 Texas Declares Independence:

On March 1, the Convention of 1836 begins meeting to sign a new constitution and form a new government. On March 2, the Texas Declaration of Independence is adopted.

March 6, 1836 Battle of the Alamo:

On March 6, the Battle of the Alamo is lost by Texas and becomes a rallying cry for the continued struggle for independence.

March 27, 1836 The Goliad Massacre:

The Goliad Massacre takes place in which Mexican General Santa Anna orders the execution of 400 surrendered Texans. This also becomes a rallying cry for